

Leading Cessna Dealer teams with flight simulation web site.

The Plane Depot is the exclusive dealer selling aircraft on www.flightadventures.com

(San Luis Obispo, CA) - FlightAdventures (FA) announced today that The Plane Depot, perennially one of the nation's top-selling Cessna dealers, will be the exclusive dealer selling aircraft from its site, www.flightadventures.com. FA's web site is the Internet's first interactive pilot's center and is the only web site currently planning to support the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) with online streaming FAA Aviation Safety Program Videos.

The Plane Depot is known for innovative and successful sales strategies.

The Plane Depot is a division of Lincoln Park Aviation, a company founded and run by Frank Galella. The Plane Depot is billed as The Cessna Superstore and is a key component of Galella's sales strategies, which includes a factory-direct program called PlanesDirect. "FlightAdventures is providing us with an exciting opportunity, and that is to present ourselves to a new audience of aviation enthusiasts" says Galella. "We intend to attract as many as possible to the values we provide with new and used aircraft."

FlightAdventures provides the Virtual Pilot Center™.

FlightAdventures host the Virtual Pilot Center™ (VPC), the Internet's only interactive pilot center. The VPC is the brainchild of Ben Chiu, internationally published author of multiple Microsoft Flight Simulator© User Manuals, former host of MSN's Flight Simulator online forum and a Certificated Flight Instructor (CFI). "This is an exciting innovation for pilots everywhere" says Chiu. "The VPC is the only site that brings simulator and real-world pilots together. The results are better pilots. I'm thrilled to help provide this to pilots everywhere."

FlightAdventures is a subsidiary of FlightVentures, Inc., a CA corporation formed to bring flight simulation to life. The company exists to provide the highest level of flight simulation experience so real world flight skills can benefit. FlightAdventures operates the Virtual Pilot Center™ (VPC), which provides a host of aviation-related services to both simulator and real-world aviators.
